

The High Street: the lessons of history

David Harrison – London Living Streets

Section 1: a brief history of shopping

Town origins: Oxford, Salisbury

Market, Fairs and shops

Medieval Shops

Shops : 18th and 19th centuries

Shopping centres

Shopping centres and the car

Section 2: Lessons from the past

There is always change; do not regret demise of chain store. Cornmarket, Oxford.

High density, mixed use – living over the shop

Local distinctiveness

Places for play

Governance: cities have lost their powers: Salisbury

Central Government has always had a key role

Car parking:

- Cheap parking close to the centre not the answer
- Towns/cities are not just retail parks

Bedford

