

Sheffield 2012

Urban design week

Monday 8th October ► 12.30pm to 2.00pm

VISIONS FOR THE MOOR

Ranald Philips, Brian Tracey and Zac Tudor will talk about the regeneration of the Moor. Ranald, director of Ashcroft will talk about the commercial considerations, Brian, director of Leslie Jones Architecture will reflect on the design aspects for some of the proposals within the Moor. Zac, landscape architect at Sheffield City Council will talk about the design of the public realm and the role and function of the Moor and its connectivity within the city.

Booking: Places are limited. Please register your interest via David Marsh at david.marsh@sheffield.gov.uk or by telephoning 0114 2734223

Venue: Quaker Meeting House, 10 St James Street, S1 2EW

Organiser: Sheffield City Council

► 6.00pm to 8.00pm

MASSIVE SMALL

Kelvin Campbell will offer observations on urban design and regeneration. Kelvin, managing director of Urban Initiatives will explain concepts introduced in his recent publication, 'Massive small: the operating system for smart urbanism', which outlines the processes and behaviours required to deliver urban projects in the current challenging climate, and explore fundamental questions relating to the changing role of the public sector.

A copy of MASSIVE SMALL is outlined on the Smart Urbanism website
<http://smarturbanism.org.uk/2011/01/massive-small/>

Booking: Please register your interest via David Marsh at david.marsh@sheffield.gov.uk or by telephoning 0114 2734223

Venue: Electric Works, Sheffield Digital Campus, S1 2BJ

Organiser: Sheffield City Council

Tuesday 9th October ► 12.30pm to 2.00pm

RESEARCH DISCUSSION ON SHEFFIELD'S URBAN CONDITION

Sheffield School of Architecture will facilitate a discussion on possible platforms to collect and share ideas, research and best practice concerned with the imaginative transformation of Sheffield's urban fabric.

The event is using the exhibition '50 ideas for Sheffield - how we might build a better city together', first developed for the Festival of the Mind, curated by SKINN and Cristina Cerulli (SSoA).

Booking: Open to everyone from politicians, academics, professionals and local communities who care about the future of the city.

Venue: CADS - Creative Arts Development Space, Snow Lane, S3 7AL

Organiser: Sheffield School of Architecture/MAUD in collaboration with SKINN

► 6.00pm to 8.00pm

'UPWAVE CITIES': SELF GENERATING CITY REGIONS

John Montgomery will talk about the need to understand the real geography of economic development and wealth creation, based on cities and city regions that are economically dynamic, export and trade, and are creative, distinctive and well designed. John is Managing Director of Urban Cultures and is an internationally renowned master city planner and urbanist, having worked on a range of area revitalisation projects including Dublin's Temple Bar, Manchester's Northern Quarter and the South Bank in Brisbane. John's latest book, Upwave, was published in 2011 by Ashgate.

Booking: Please register your interest via David Marsh at david.marsh@sheffield.gov.uk or by telephoning 0114 2734223

Venue: Peak Lecture Theatre level 5, Owen building, City Campus, Sheffield Hallam University

Organisers: Sheffield City Council

Wednesday 10th October ► 1.00pm to 2.30pm

OLD IS THE NEW NEW

Toby Hyam and Chris Thompson will talk about the challenge and benefits of adapting old buildings.

Toby, managing director of Creative Space Management will talk about alteration to multi-occupancy workspace, reflecting on his experience of developing and operating award winning projects such as Toffee Factory in Newcastle, Tower Works in Leeds and Electric Works in Sheffield. Chris, director of Citu will reflect on his experience of developing projects, including current proposals in Kelham Island.

Venue: The HUBS - Pod C, Paternoster Row, S1 2QQ

Organiser: Sheffield Hallam University

► 6.00pm to 8.00pm

THE LONDON OLYMPIC PARK

Professor Nigel Dunnet and Professor James Hitchmough from the University of Sheffield's Department of Landscape will discuss their role as lead consultants for planting design for the London Olympic Park, and illustrate how the meadows, wildflowers and gardens have proved to be so inspiring to millions of visitors, marking a turning point for urban park design in the UK. They will show how this links with their innovative approaches to revitalising the planting of urban greenspaces, pioneered in Sheffield.

Venue: Arts Tower Lecture Theatre 6

Organiser: University of Sheffield Department of Landscape

Thursday 11th October ► 12.30pm - 2.00pm

A NEW SENSE OF CITIES

Dr Victoria Henshaw from Manchester Architecture Research Centre and Justine Gaubert from Silent Cities will showcase new technologies that are helping us to document, change and explore our cities.

Victoria will look at how mapping has changed to gain insight into place specific sensory experience and outline a new interactive smell-mapping project. Justine will discuss how people can use Citizen Journalism to document and shape urban places through media and technology.

Victoria will be leading a Smell-walk at the conclusion of the talks.

Booking: Places are strictly limited and offered on a first come, first serve basis. To reserve your place please contact Rachel Sanderson at Rachel@ciq.org.uk

Venue: Site Gallery, 1 Brown Street, S1 2BS

Organiser: IntegreatPLUS

► 5.30pm - 7.00pm

STERLING WORKS AND FREEMAN COLLEGE

Simon Hookham from Tatlow Stancer Architects and Bonny Etchell Anderson, Principal of Freeman College will provide a tour of the refurbished Grade II listed Sterling Works, followed by a talk about the renovation and Freeman College. Simon will offer his observations on the challenges and opportunities of working with a Listed Metal Trades building, which was joint winner of the Neighbourhood and Community Building Award and Commended in the Sheffield Design Awards 2008. Bonny will talk about how Freeman College uses the building, and their education of young people with a range of learning difficulties.

Booking: Places are limited. Please register your interest via David Marsh at david.marsh@sheffield.gov.uk or by telephoning 0114 2734223

Venue: Sterling Works, Arundel Street

Organiser: Tatlow Stancer Architects/ Freeman College

Friday 12th October ► 18.00pm to 20.00pm

REVIEW OF THE WEEK

AXIS architects will bring the week to a close, hosting an informal review in their basement studio, which will be an opportunity to share experiences and reactions to the weeks' events.

Refreshments will be provided.

Booking: Places are limited and booking is essential. Please register your interest via AXIS architecture by emailing events@axis-architecture.com or by telephoning 0114 2490944

Venue: AXIS architecture

Organiser: AXIS architecture

