Statement of trustees' responsibilities:

Law applicable to charities in England and Wales requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the charity's financial activities during the year and of its incoming resources and resources expended during that year.

In preparing those financial statements the trustees are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent
- State whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the activities of the charity will continue
- Confirm that they have paid due regard to the Charity Commission guidelines on public benefit.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011 and the Statement of Recommended Practice, Accounting and Reporting by Charities 2005. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Performance & Achievements

The COVID 19 Pandemic

The year 2020-2021 has been the first year of the pandemic.

Thanks to huge efforts of the membership, Executive Committee, Editorial Board, and staff, the UDG increased its output substantially during the lockdown, maintaining the publication of the journal, switching to zoom meetings and events, with greatly increased frequency. The results have been positive, and we have been delighted to see people from around globe, not only attend events, but participate in them.

Urban Update extended its trawl of international research to include research on SARS Coronavirus II. And we have been reminded that infectious disease has been a dominant factor in the design of towns and cities over past millennia, with the relatively disease-free 20th century being an exception.

In addition, to support membership UDG

- Offered free job advertisements to all registered practices during the lockdowns.
- Provided a membership payment holiday to any members in financial difficulty.
- A survey of practices on how they were coping with the first lockdown, including arrangements for staff, use of government grants, furloughs.

Website

The UDG's website was completely rebuilt to enable compatibility with smartphones, laptops and desktops, and launched in September 2020. It now incorporates the Urban Design Directory which had formerly been a stand-alone website, a listing of Recognised Practitioners in Urban Design, with a facility for them to add biographical details, an events archive, and many more features.

Email Newsletter – Urban Update

The UDG's email newsletter Urban Update continues to be a valuable resource for urban designers. It is received directly by over 3,000 individuals and provides a concise monitoring service of the government websites, as well as news of research in a wide range of areas that add richness to urban design including psychology, sociology, public health, technology and economics.

Urban Design Directory

	The 2021/22 print edition of the Urban Design Directory was mailed to housebuilders, developers, local authorities and UDG members in January 2021. The Directory has been progressively revised so that it addresses urban design decision makers and clients. Running to 72 pages it featured not only extensive listings of urban design practices, but also articles aiming to create greater awareness of best practice in urban design, including "What is Urban Design?", Strategic Urban Design, Street Design Standards, Circular Economies, Inclusive Public Spaces. Edited by Louise Thomas

Other publications

Street Improvement Manual

A 78 page manual was produced during the lockdown by a group of volunteers meeting remotely to provide local authorities with information on changes to street design in response to the COVID 19 Pandemic, including a summary of the statutory guidance, low traffic neighbourhoods, designs for safer junctions for cyclists, street crossing designs, and options for streetspace reallocation for a range of historic street widths.

People involved were: Colin Davis, Brian Deegan, David Harrison, Saskia Huizinga, Robert Huxford, David McKenna, Graham Smith, Peter Heath, Ralph Hitchman, Scott Elliott Adams, Elise Lim, Lucy Marstrand, Christopher Martin, David Moores, Stephen O'Malley, Christopher Procter, Anna Rose.

UDG Briefing sheets:

Street Design Standards: Current and Withdrawn Practice

To address the findings of an earlier survey on Street Design Standards which concluded that as few as 20 percent of highway authorities had revised their street design standards to reflect Manual for Streets, a briefing sheet summarising current government guidance and industry best practice was produced by members of the Urban Design Group including Graham Smith and Robert Huxford, working in conjunction with the Institution of Civil Engineers, the Public Realm Information and Advice Network, and the Trees and Design Action Group.

Many hundreds of copies of the briefing sheet have been downloaded

Planning for the Future -
The Planning White Paper 2020

Produced to support the UDG's consultation events on the White Paper.

Gear Change – A bold vision for walking and cycling

On the Government's policy to promote walking and cycling.

Home Comforts – the UDG supported the Place Alliance national survey of 2,500 households (representing 7,200 people) aimed at understanding how well or how poorly the design of our homes and their immediate neighbourhood supported us during the period of corona virus lockdown.

Events

The UDG has continued to develop and expand its programme of events, where possible, working in partnership with other organisations. Due to Covid the events programme was moved online via Zoom, reaching a wider audience, involving more speakers and increasing the number of events. Many of the events responded specifically to the remarkable challenges being faced because of the pandemic through a weekly ideasSPACE session, a more informal type of event, which ran from March through to July 2020. There were also a number of events held around the Planning White Paper and National Model Design Code.

UrbanNous- Video on Demand

Thanks are due to Fergus Carnegie who continues his largely voluntary work. He has recorded and packaged the UDG zoom events making them available to a global audience through the Urbannous website and youtube channel. They are also embedded on the UDG website events archive pages and shared on the UDG youtube channel.

This is a great resource and a tremendously valuable archive of the huge number of presentations given at the UDG over recent years.

Financial Review

Reserves policy

The definition of 'reserve' is: 'Income which becomes available to the Charity and is to be expended at the Trustees' discretion in furtherance of the Charity's objectives, but which is not yet spent, committed or designated'. This definition therefore excludes restricted funds and sums already invested in fixed assets.

The trustees have reviewed the reserves of the charity and, in view of the current financial situation, are of the opinion that they should fall no lower than a minimum of £50,000. This will provide sufficient funds to enable the charity to meet outstanding obligations.

Approved by the Trustees on 6 December 2021
and signed on their behalf

The Board will have no legal responsibilities, merely fulfilling an advisory and guiding function. Patrons will be elected for a three year period and can be re-elected.

14. AMENDMENTS

The Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds majority of members present at an Annual General Meeting or Special General Meeting of the Group, provided that 28 days notice of the proposed amendment has been given to all members and provided that nothing herein contained shall authorise any amendment the effect of which would cause the Group at any time to cease to be a charity in law.

Any notice required to be given by these rules shall be deemed to be duly given if left at or sent by prepaid post addressed to the address of that member last notified by the Secretary.

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of Urban Design Group (the Group) for the year ended 28 February 2021.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Group you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the Group's accounts carried out under section 145 of the Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

- (1) accounting records were not kept in respect of the Group as required by section 130 of the Act; or
- (2) the accounts do not accord with those records; or
- (3) the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of the accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I confirm that there are no matters to which your attention should be drawn to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
